Catalysing Education Leadership

-A Shibulal Family Philanthropic Initiative-

Why Leadership Matters?

An effective leadership can add approximately 3 months to a student's learning in a year.

(How Principals Affect Students and Schools, Wallace Foundation Report, 2021)

Poor management capacity and lack of autonomy among school leadership lead to poor education outcomes.

(World Bank's World Development Report 2018)

Leadership = Ability to Drive Continuous Improvements

Quality education starts with school improvement, which is driven by the leaders. Be it teachers, school leaders, parents, youth, women or any other community members, anyone owning the responsibility to drive micro-improvement in the education ecosystem is a LEADER.

The Micro-Improvement approach empowers leaders to make small, meaningful changes that lead to big impact, helping every child learn, grow, and thrive, ensuring education equity at scale.

Our Vision

Enabling enriching learning experiences for all children in India

SHIKSHAGRAHA

A People's Movement Towards Education Equity

Shikshagraha is a national movement to transform public education in India by restoring the leadership of schools to the communities they belong to. Rooted in the spirit of collective action and decentralised reform, it brings together youth, women, civil society, governments, and communities to reimagine and rebuild 1 million public schools across the country by building-

Systemic Leadership Collective

Energising need-based school improvements in 250 districts

Youth Leadership Collective

Facilitating youth involvement in the public education system

Women Leadership Collective

Enabling women leadership towards school improvements

To support the mission, ShikshaLokam is weaving a vibrant network of education leaders, education departments, government officials, academia, local NGOs, mentors, funders, philanthropists and media, to catalyse collective action towards the vision of the movement.
